I think that the future of our world is in the hands of foreign language teachers, translators and interpreters. We ~~are~~ all live on the same planet, and need to communicate with each other. ^{The} Russian Federation and ~~the~~ Great Britain are two powerful countries, and because of this we often talk or message with each other in different conditions. It can be simple communication, trade, politic sphere, and if we will not know each other languages, we it will be difficult to contact.

Our world develop very fast, foreign languages became the main part of our education. English language is the most popular in Russia, but in Britain, I think, my language is not so spreaded all over the people. We should fight with that problem. I know, that practically in every city there are a lot of Russians, and some of them giving lessons of our great language. I want all of you to go to this lessons and to start studying Russian! Maybe in future you will go to the Russia as a traveller, or a director of a big trade company, and in this case you will use your knowledges. Or you can make a friendship with Russian men or women, who don't know English, isn't that great?

I want to believe that I have encouraged you to learn Russian language, and I wish the whole world went on studying Russia not as a potential enemy but as a real friend.
